

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS | May 5, 2019

THANK YOU!

A heartfelt thank you goes to all who helped make our Lenten, Holy Week and Easter services rich and meaningful. Thanks to all who shared stories of how God is real in their lives, making our Lenten devotional deeply appreciated by many members and friends. So many people shared how it impacted them and helped to shape their prayer time during Lent.

Thanks to Halldor Gudmundsson and the nearly 30 participants who made our Lenten dinner parties a rich experience of learning and encountering the weekly scripture lessons. Look for a continuation of these gatherings in some form as many expressed appreciation for how these discussions helped them get much more from worship.

Sunday Morning Live was a huge success thanks to the meaningful portrayals of characters from our gospel stories. Special thanks to Ben Kellar, Craig Gordon, Katelyn Ivancic, Flo Thwaites, Noah Toth, Mike McGaw, Mary Jecmen, Barb Nitzsche, Jan Henninger, and Pam Wolf for their powerful performances. It seems we have some Oscar nominees in the making! In addition to Sunday Morning Live, our Lenten worship featured encounters with one another.

Thanks to all who helped make Holy Week and Easter a memorable experience: those who prepared food for our Maundy Thursday table encounter, our readers at each service, and those who participated in the prayer vigil and walked the stations of the cross. All this was under-girded by the work of our staff who kept things moving smoothly throughout the season.

Finally, special thanks to Jarred Sorauf and the members of the chancel and bell choirs for providing beautiful music at each of our worship services that enhanced our experience. The anthem and service music on Easter Sunday, in particular, was stunningly gorgeous and made our celebration of the resurrection particularly joyful.

Christ is risen . . . and we look forward to our encounters with him in the weeks to come! May they continue to be as rich and meaningful as our Lenten and Holy Week journeys.

. . . And Thanks Again!

Unfortunately, the week following Easter included back-to-back funerals and a visitation which kept staff and members busy supporting families in their loss. Special thanks to Gary Canute, Jarred Sorauf, Anne Harris, Flo Thwaites, June Canute, Mayele Ngemba, Mars Patterson, Cheryl Seymour and all those who assisted in serving the Paschal and Dorner families. It is truly a gift knowing I can offer the support of the congregation to people who are grieving and know many will step forward to meet the need!

INTERPRETER SCHEDULE

The interpreters who serve our hearing impaired ministry will be on hiatus in June, July and August. The decision to do this was based on the reduced budget for this service this year.
